

Pre-Season Rankings

		School	Comments
	1	Queens College	Led by Jamaal Hoyte and Gabby Moxey QC can take overall championship
	2	St. Andrews	The Cargill brothers will challenge and there are some unknown talent hidden in the woodwork
	3	Nassau Christian Academy	Defending champions. They will be a team to be reckoned with but numbers will prevent repeat
	4	St. Johns	Can do damage.... but will all their players compete!!!!
	5	St. Augustines	Danielle Thompson was a the main player and dominated last year. Will have to step up again
	6	H.O. Nash	Kevin Major- top junior player in Bahamas will impose his will but he is alone
	7	Catholic High, Freeport	Can compete but unsure whether their team will be at full strength
	8	Bishop Michael Eldon, Freeport	Can compete but unsure whether their team will be at full strength
	9	Temple Christian	Kevaughn Ferguson and Rayven Barry will win some matches
	10	North Andros High	Philip Major the lone ranger will hang a banner for the family Island.
	11	St. Annes	Johanny Taylor #1 player 18s will make his presence felt
	12	Tamberly	Jody Turnquest made the semi finals last year and looks to stay in the region. Amir Poole will is the side kick
	13	Lyford Cay	Many players competing could spell trouble for many
	14	Kingsway	competitive
	15	Home School	Will do well if Harts are available. Jack Kelly and Cole Maura will generate excitement
	16	Blairwood	Britt will represent himself and Blairwood quite well
	17	St. Bedes	Malik Jones will be competitive
	18	Hill Crest Academy	Oniel Mortimer - Mr. excitement
	19	C.C. Sweeting	Loren Minns will give it his all.
		Mini Division
	1	St. Francis St. Josephs (Mini)
	2	Meridian
	3	Lyford Cay	